

As President of Harris myCFO Investment Advisory Services, LLC, Craig Rawlins is responsible for defining the vision and strategy that have helped make Harris myCFO unique in the investment advisory industry for its independence, objectivity, and advocacy. Together with Harris myCFO's Family Office Services, Investment Advisory Services provides clients with the clarity and simplicity afforded by single source management and reporting across all their financial needs, and from multiple providers. Craig joined Harris myCFO in 2009.

Prior to joining Harris myCFO, Craig spent ten years at Russell Investments where he held national responsibility for institutional client service and led the delivery of investment advice and implementation to the firm's largest defined benefit, endowment and foundation, and defined contribution clients. In addition to his institutional experience, Craig has spent more than ten years advising individuals and families of significant wealth including as Principal and Director of Client Service and Business Development at Gresham Partners, LLC, as a member of Ernst & Young LLP's Personal Financial Counseling practice, as well as in his own business.

Craig graduated from Chicago's Roosevelt University with a BS in Business Administration (accounting major). He is a Chartered Financial Analyst, Certified Public Accountant, and CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ Certificant. He is also a published author, and a member of both the CFA Institute and CFA Society of Chicago.

A married father of two, Craig resides in Evanston, IL and enjoys spending free time in Door County, WI.
