

Cherish Sutull is an Investment Advisor with Harris myCFO Investment Advisory Services, LLC, in Seattle, WA. Specializing in manager due diligence in both traditional and alternative investments, she excels in understanding manager characteristics as they relate to building custom portfolios to match each client's unique preferences. Cherish joined Harris myCFO in 2009 and has nearly 15 years of financial services experience.

A graduate of George Fox University, Newberg, OR, Cherish holds a BS in Psychology. She also earned an MBA from Seattle University Albers School of Business and Economics.

Cherish has been a member of both the CFA® Institute and the CFA Society of Seattle since 2003.

Cherish lives in Seattle with her two children. An avid sports enthusiast who played varsity basketball during her undergraduate years, Cherish enjoys whitewater kayaking, mountain biking, downhill skiing, and competing in triathlons. She also makes time to go camping, hiking, crabbing, and clam digging with her family.
